MAINTENANCE IN THE CHURCH

Starting this week, we will begin preparations for the Advent and Christmas seasons. First, the four organ cases will be cleaned. This may involve either scaffolding or a mechanical lift. Second, we will have the semi-annual cleaning and polishing of the church floors. Areas will be roped off during these activities. Please avoid the area where you cannot enter safely. We appreciate your cooperation.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Each October, the celebration of World Mission Sunday leads us to the heart of our Catholic faith, which is mission, as Pope Francis explains in his messages for this year's celebration on 22 October.

The second collection this Sunday is unique. It is truly a global effort for the entire Church. It is a central moment each year to provide for the building up of over one thousand local churches in Asia and Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, an area that covers more than half the territory of the globe. Through the work of these churches, and their witness to Christ, the poor receives practical help and experience the Lord's love, mercy, hope, and peace.

With this letter, I invite all of you to see World Mission Sunday as a special moment of encounter with Pope Francis's missions throughout the world. Meeting the priests, religious, and lay leaders who, day in and day out, witness to the Gospel and serve the poor, will, as the Holy Father says, "enable the missionary heart of Christian communities to join in prayers, testimony of life and communion of goods, in responding to the vast and pressing needs of evangelization."

Please be as generous as you can be to this annual appeal. We are all called to be missionaries: by service, prayer, and financial support.

Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP

A Bereavement Support Group is being organized for those grieving the death of a loved one. The weekly sessions will help guide people through their grieving process in a safe and supportive environment. This group will provide the opportunity to share with others, learn about the process of grief, and find comfort during this difficult time. The seven-week program will begin Thursday, 2 November, from 6:30–8:00 p.m. in the Chapel Meeting Room. (N.B. The group will not meet on Thanksgiving Day.) It will be facilitated by Elizabeth Fougner, a parishioner who has completed the Archdiocesan training program in Pastoral Bereavement Ministry. The group's size will be limited, and registration will close when the group has been filled. For more information or to register, please call Maria at the Parish Office at (212) 679–8166 ext. 210. Registration will close Monday, 30 October.
