*"Whoever keeps his word,
the love of God is truly perfected in him."*

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

In this liturgical season of Easter, which goes from Easter Sunday to Pentecost Sunday, the joyful song of Alleluia is heard over and over again in the assembly of believers. It is in an invitation to offer praise for Christ's victory over sin and death.

This season is also the time of year when we recall the Church's origins, revisiting the history of that group of disciples who, after meeting the risen Jesus, received the Holy Spirit with power and became courageous preachers of the Gospel in the world.

We are told in the Acts of the Apostles that the Mother of the Risen One was present at the center of the newborn apostolic community: "All these with one accord devoted themselves to prayer, together with the women and Mary, the mother of Jesus" (Acts 1:14).

Just as she was intimately joined at the foot of the cross to Christ's redeeming sacrifice, so Mary is the silent witness among the Apostles in the Upper Room. In a certain sense, she enlivens their faith and their prayer. She supports and encourages them, as with one voice they call upon the Holy Spirit promised by Jesus. This image of the first community at prayer, in expectation of Pentecost, must always remain before our eyes, especially in this year dedicated to the Holy Spirit, in order to sustain our journey of faith and apostolate.

Dear brothers and sisters, let us spend the Easter season in fervent and constant prayer to the Spirit, supported and guided by the Blessed Virgin, Mother of Good Counsel.

FROM THE PASTOR

Many of you have been very kind inquiring about the deteriorating use of my right arm. Thank you for that! The doctor's diagnosis is that I have re-torn my rotator cuff. I had repair surgery in 2004 which has lasted this long. I have learned that my surgeon's favorite phrase is ... "at your age..." Apparently, with my other Baby Boomers at my side, it isn't unusual for this to happen. Which doesn't make it any less frustrating or annoying. Initially, I tried physical therapy to see if the three muscles not effected would take over for the two that are. Alas, it didn't work. I am scheduled for repair surgery on Friday, 4 May. My arm will be in a sling for six weeks, followed by six months of physical therapy. I know from my former experience that I should only be completely out of commission for about two to three weeks. After that, I remember ways to say Mass with the sling. Please keep me and the surgeon in your prayers. Of course, May is Mary's Month and I will definitely be relying on her maternal intercession for a speedy and complete recovery.

GAUDETE ET EXSULTATE

This past Monday, 9 April, His Holiness Pope Francis issued an apostolic exhortation on the call to holiness in the world. Titled, Gaudete et exsultate ("Rejoice and be glad"), the Holy Father re-proposes "a call to holiness in a practical way for our own time, with all its risks, challenges, and opportunities". It's a wonderful message to us in today's world, as we strive to live good and holy lives. Gaudete et exsultate is available both digitally and in print form. Links for both formats are on the parish's website.
