PROTECTION OF MINORS

Cardinal Dolan, the Archbishop of New York, invites the faithful to watch a video about the Church's response to the present sexual abuse crisis facing the Church. The video may be streamed online at: <archny.org/news/transparency-accountability-and-action>.

ACCESSIBILITY AT THE CHAPEL

It has become apparent that we need more space for wheelchairs at the Chapel. To accommodate this need, we will be removing the two rows of chairs in the rear of the Chapel. This will also make distribution of Communion to the wheelchair bound easier for the priest and the extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Today is World Mission Sunday. We celebrate this day by remembering the revitalizing mission at the heart of our Christian faith – to bring the Gospel to all! The second collection today for the Society of the Propagation of the Faith ensures the work and service of the Mission Church, as it supports priests, religious, and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. Thank you for your generosity.

GRACES OF WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

It is appropriate first of all to emphasize the following point: for the Church, the first means of evangelization is the witness of an authentically Christian life, given over to God in a communion that nothing should destroy and at the same time given to one's neighbor with limitless zeal. As we said recently to a group of lay people, "Modern man listens more willingly to witnesses than to teachers, and if he does listen to teachers, it is because they are witnesses." Saint Peter expressed this well when he held up the example of a reverent and chaste life that wins over even without a word those who refuse to obey the Word. It is therefore primarily by her conduct and by her life that the Church will evangelize the world, in other words, by her living witness of fidelity to the Lord Jesus – the witness of poverty and detachment, of freedom in the face of the powers of this world, in short, the witness of sanctity.

What is the state of the Church ... after the Council? ... Is she firmly established in the midst of the world and yet free and independent enough to call for the world's attention? Does she testify to solidarity with people and at the same time to the divine Absolute? Is she more ardent in contemplation and adoration and more zealous in missionary, charitable, and liberating action? Is she ever more committed to the effort to search for the restoration of the complete unity of Christians, a unity that makes more effective the common witness, "so that the world may believe?" We are all responsible for the answers that could be given to these questions.

– St. Paul VI
